DIVERSEY EMAIL TO EMPLOYEES

Dear Colleagues,

I am writing today to personally share with you some exciting news. Moments ago, it was announced that Diversey plans to merge with Solenis, a leading global producer of specialty chemicals with over 6,500 employees that is focused on delivering sustainable solutions for water-intensive industries. Upon completion of the merger, Diversey would become a private company.

Together, we believe Solenis and Diversey can focus on growth and seize opportunities to bring end-to-end solutions to meet the needs of our collective customers. We believe this is an attractive opportunity to create a diversified category leader with scale, global reach, and superb customer service capabilities. Additionally, our international presence, coupled with Solenis' broad reach in North America and other key geographies, will enable the combined company to grow and provide a number of attractive cross-selling opportunities, including the ability to meet increasing customer demand for water management, cleaning and hygiene solutions. As a combined company, we believe we will have the necessary resources to build upon our progress and invest in our continued growth.

While we generally sell different products and serve different customers, Solenis and Diversey have much in common. We share the same mission of being a quality employer and a trusted partner to customers and suppliers with a commitment to delivering quality long-term customer outcomes. We believe this shared commitment, following our combination, will enhance Diversey's differentiated customer, product and geographic portfolio.

What does this all mean for you? We will continue to operate separately and on a business-as-usual basis until the merger is completed, which we expect to occur in the second half of 2023. In the interim, it is vitally important that we remain focused on serving customers and executing the various initiatives currently underway so that Diversey reaches the important goals we have set out to achieve for 2023.

We know there will be a number of questions about the operation of the combined company, and we will endeavor to keep you informed, with a commitment to transparency. The attached press release and FAQs hopefully begin to provide answers to many of your questions. Of course, until the transaction closes, we may not be able to answer every question. Should you have additional questions, please contact your manager or reach out to ir@diversey.com.

Finally, I would like to thank each of you for the dedication and hard work that have led us to this point. We have built a fantastic company together, and I hope you share my excitement as we begin a vital new chapter in the growth of Diversey!

Sincerely,

Phil Wieland
